

The Puppet People Perform The Elephant Child

Burton Hall
Wednesday, July 10
1:30 PM

Let The Puppet People take you out of this world and into a magical jungle created by Rudyard Kipling. The Puppet People will present, a humorous, contemporary, adaptation of Kipling's classic tale of how elephants got their long noses. Featuring large colorful puppets and beautiful soft sculpture scenery. This program is a great way to introduce children to Kipling's mastery of language!

This program is funded by the Stewart's Holiday Match.

This program is part of Easton Library's Summer Reading Program, "A Universe of Stories"
